CROSSLANDS RECRUITS SANJAY BHARTIA FOR CFO ROLE

Crosslands Resources has recruited Sanjay Bhartia as Chief Financial Officer, adding to the calibre of its strong management team.

Mr Bhartia brings almost 20 years of international experience in mining, chemicals, manufacturing and soft commodities enterprises to Crosslands as it further strengthens its position within Western Australia's iron ore sector.

Most recently Head of Financial & Commercial with ASX 300 company Aditya Birla Minerals, Mr Bhartia was responsible, inter alia, for the copper producer's $300M IPO, the administration of all working capital needs and investor relations management.

He was previously a commercial manager with Lotus 2000 in South Africa, leading a team of 21 employees, and with Indophil Cotton Mills in the Philippines.

In welcoming Mr Bhartia, Crosslands Chief Executive Officer Stuart Hall said the company was privileged to secure the services of a professional with corporate management experience across a range of crucial functions.

"We are delighted to have Sanjay join our team from a very competitive market place, at a crucial time, as we transition from a junior producer to a mid-tier mining entity," said Mr Hall.

"His depth of experience with both public and private companies, operating in key domestic and export industries, is a fitting complement to our corporate capabilities."

Crosslands Resources Ltd owns and operates the Jack Hills iron ore mine in Western Australia' mid-west region, 380 kilometres north-east of Geraldton. Crosslands is jointly owned (50/50) by Murchison Metals Ltd and Mitsubishi Development Pty Ltd, a subsidiary of Mitsubishi Corporation, Japan's largest general trading company.
